8. Supporting Students from Impoverished and/or Traumatic Backgrounds

Guest Speaker: Sonnya Nieves, Milton Hershey School Social Worker

Sonnya will be speaking on practical strategies, utilizing a social-emotional learning framework, to support students from impoverished and/or traumatic backgrounds.

Sonnya Nieves has a Master of Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh and an undergraduate degree in Psychology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She is a licensed Clinical Social Worker, a Pennsylvania Certified Home School Visitor, and a Registered Yoga Teacher. Sonnya's education and training focused on providing social work support in the school setting. She has been in the field for 20 years, working in public schools and special education, as well as providing clinical services in outpatient and in-home settings prior to joining Milton Hershey School in 2006. She also enjoys teaching mindfulness and yoga to teens and adults.
