10. Guest speaker Dr. Lisa Lucas

This interactive presentation for leaders and teachers shares cutting edge research in neuroscience, mindfulness, and social emotional awareness. Discover how to train the mind and establish healthy habits and simple self-care strategies that can easily be incorporated into everyday life. In a world where everyone seems overly busy and overextended, practicing presence offers a much-needed change of pace to prevent burnout.

Lisa is currently a Professor in the College of Education at West Chester University of Pennsylvania, a speaker/trainer that provides workshops on Engaging Learners, and a professional coach that specializes in helping others achieve balance – finding the median between working to live and living to work.
