The course will be delivered through 14 contact hours, in-person sessions (seven-hour session and four-hour Report-out session) and four monthly one-hour mentoring sessions at your school with your CT DSL to provide the maximum opportunity for participants to complete the job-embedded assignments of the course. The first full day (7 hours) session will cover Administrative Manual and Supervision Plan. The mentoring sessions with the CTDSL will cover (1) Teacher Effectiveness; (2) Teacher Student Learning Objectives (SLO), (3) Principal Effectiveness and (4) Principal Student Learning Objectives (SLO). The half-day session, which is a Report-out session will be scheduled for June 5, 2019.
